Company forms Corporate Finance Division and Corporate Control division to meet the needs of its expanding organisation

New appointments at Autogrill's Central Finance Division

Milan, 12th November - Autogrill, the world's leading provider of retail restaurant services for travellers, has strengthened its Central Planning, Finance, Control & ICT Division.

A newly formed Corporate Finance Division is to be headed by Antonio Barile, who will report directly to the Chief Operating Officer Carmine Meoli. Barile, 35, has worked previously with Citibank, Benetton, Ernst & Young and HdP.

Autogrill has also formed a Corporate Management Control Division, headed by Massimo D'Ambrosio, 42, who joins Autogrill from his previous post as head of Financial Planning & Control in Olivetti Wang Global.

Finally, Marco Baldin, 39, has been appointed director of the Legal & Corporate Affairs Division, the post he previously held in Italtel.

Mario Zanini, head of the Corporate Administration & Internal Auditing Division, and Renato Marchi, director of Organisational Processes & Systems, remain in their current posts. Luigi Guerrieri moves from his position as Subsidiary Controller to become Autogrill's Acquisition Integration Manager and Group Capital Expenditure Manager.
