

Camillo Rossotto – Corporate General Manager and Group Chief Financial Officer

Camillo Rossotto has been Autogrill's Corporate General Manager since November 2018, and in 2019 he was appointed Group Chief Financial Officer.

Born in Torino in 1962, he graduated in Political Science from the local University and later earned an MBA from L. Stern School of Business in New York.

He started his career in the Fiat Group in 1989 and built his experience in different roles, progressively increasing his responsibility in Italy and abroad, in USA, Germany and Brazil. After moving to Barilla as Group Treasurer, he rejoined the Fiat Group in 2000 to further expand his responsibility as Vice President & Treasurer. Over the course of the following 12 years, he participated in the most important deals in the Group's evolution. For instance, negotiating financial deals, supporting the Group's reorganization in two different entities: Fiat SpA and Fiat Industrial SpA, listed at Milan Stock Exchange, merging of Fiat Industrial and CNH. He was Chief Executive Officer of the Fiat Group Financial Services Division, FGA Capital, from 2009 to 2010. He left the Group in 2012 as Chief Financial Officer of CNH.

That same year, he joined RAI as Chief Financial Officer, and later became Chairman of Rai Way, successfully conducting its IPO process and listing at Milan Stock Exchange.

In 2016 he joined the Lavazza Group, as Chief Financial Officer.